"Catherine has been a wonderful partner to our organization! Her work has been thorough, of high quality, and timely. Her approach is collaborative and works to seek information from various angles. She has also proven to be a great problem solver with issues that develop mid-project! Her ability to assess issues, strategize, and suggest positive solutions has helped us reach successful outcomes!

*"Catherine is an intellectual designer. A deep thinker in the web industry, she enjoys the geeky challenges of code and content equally. She is independent and dependable, easy-going and serious. She is a great catch in all design and development aspects, because she is well-rounded, well-spoken and always on the ball.

- Noemi Lucciola, Senior Web Designer at Westat
